

achieveglobal®

Marketing Temp (Temporary/Part-Time) Tampa, FL

For more than 30 years, AchieveGlobal's people-focused culture has helped organizations turn strategy into results through the power of their people. Today, AchieveGlobal's team researches and implements strategically linked training programs that help companies generate measurable results in the areas of Sales Effectiveness, Leadership Development, and Customer Service.

This temporary, part-time role will provide support with the execution of various marketing activities and projects in our department, including e-marketing, events, public relations, social media, collateral development, and internal sales education.

Key Responsibilities will include:

- Providing assistance with campaign activity and various elements of product launch marketing plans
- Assisting in the development of promotional pieces for use both internally and externally
- Coordinating various vendors on development and execution of campaign collateral & materials including Printers, Designers, Multimedia developers
- Working with marketing team and product development team to execute on sales education plans

The successful candidate will have:

- A basic understanding of direct marketing
- Effective verbal and written communication skills
- Demonstrable proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint
- Experience with graphic design software is a plus
- High School Diploma preferred

Benefits

AchieveGlobal's benefits stand out to provide the associate with peace of mind and allow them to focus on the business at hand. Some examples for this temporary/part-time role include:

- Company-paid holidays
- Personal holidays and sick time
- Relaxed Professional Dress Code

To Apply:

For consideration, please visit at www.achieveglobal.com/careers . There, you will be able to read a full job description, apply and attach your resume.

AchieveGlobal is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer striving for strength through diversity.