"We appreciate your help for all these years for helping ICEC in Gainesville."

Dr. R. Vijayanagar

"I initially thought Khaas Baat was another junkie! But soon when I read it, I got more information about our community. I enjoy many columns, including Dr. R. Nathan's. In the very competitive area of journalism, I would like to congratulate Nitish Rele for a wonderful job and informative news. For years while I was still in high school, my dad made us read the newspapers. I never gave up that habit. Since I have been in Tampa for the last 36 years, I have been screening newspapers."

Braham Aggarwal

Drs. Arun and Suparna Gulani

"Khaas Baat has emerged from a community News Magazine to a comparable national resource with its broad coverage of news and relevant information, aspiring to be on the cutting edge of journalism itself. Congratulations!"
